Oak Hill Academy coach to talk about Les Schwab Invitational at Nike campus

PORTLAND, OR. (March 24, 2006) – Les Schwab and Nike are hosting Oak Hill Academy coach Steve Smith at the Nike campus / Prefontaine Hall on April 5, 2006 at 1:00 pm. Coach Smith will be in attendance to talk about his upcoming team that is playing in the Les Schwab Invitational at Liberty High School on December 27-30, 2006.

Oak Hill Academy is currently ranked #2 in the nation by USA Today after posting a 40-1 record. They won the national championship during the 2004-2005 season and have won a total of 6 national championships under Coach Smith. Oak Hill is regarded as the most storied high school basketball team in the nation. They currently have many alumni playing in the NBA and challenge for the national championship every year. Coach Smith has coached NBA players such as: Carmelo Anthony, Steve Blake, DeSagana Diop, Stephen Jackson, Jeff McInnis, Ron Mercer, Josh Smith and Jerry Stackhouse. Oak Hill Academy traditionally plays the nation's toughest travel-heavy schedule against the best teams all over the country. Smith's record in 21 seasons is an amazing 644-39.

Coach Smith will be taking questions from the media at this time about Oak Hill where in over 20 years he has transformed the school from a sleepy boarding school to a national powerhouse, his coaching career, current and former players and his participation in the upcoming Les Schwab Invitational. This event is open to all members of the media and basketball enthusiasts.
